

What is Intervet WB?

-It is actually an exchange program whose full name is: Internationalization of VET systems in the countries of the Western Balkans. The INTERVET WB project will enable vocational education institutions in EU countries to establish exchange programs for students and staff with schools and vocational education and training centers in the Western Balkans and Turkey.

-The activities of this project are performed on two levels: student mobility for vocational education and the competence of teaching staff in vocational education. The project will provide participants with better access to resources related to international exchanges for training purposes, and provide information on existing opportunities.

Application Form

Dear Candidate,

You are about to submit your application for living an amazing mobility experience!
It is an online form in English and it will last around half an hour.

Before starting, we have some important instructions for you:

- Read carefully the Call for Application;
- You will need to upload some files! Make sure to have a scanned copy of your passport in pdf format;
- It is not possible to save the form: for long questions use a separate document and copy-paste your answers, so that you will have them saved in case of closing the form by accident.

Are you ready?

Let's start!

-The application phase lasts about half an hour, since it's taking a lot of time means that they are looking for certain documents and answers that are required. You need a CV, a letter of recommendation and a scanned personal document (ID card, passport or driver's license).

-The application contains questions about your previous activities, about your hobbies, your personal information, questions with a scenario and possible answers so they're able to know how would you react in a certain situation.

- Once you have applied, you will receive an email notifying you whether or not you have been accepted and an evaluation of your motivation, ambition and desire to participate in a project like this.

- If you have been accepted, the local partners of this project will contact and keep in touch with you. They further instruct you to sign a mobility agreement which is available on their official website.

- After sending the signed contract, direct or online meetings follow (depending on the situation with the Covid-19 virus in the country). You'll meet with local partners that you have been in contact with, and they'll give you additional information about your practice.

- Then begins a ten-day training for participants that includes a meeting with a UNISER representative and an English language course with professors. The training can be held directly or online, and can be extended if necessary for the participants.

- Note – Costs of: transport, accommodation, public transport (on-site practice), and pocket money for participants are covered.

Then comes the date of your departure, and that is where the adventure of your life begins

- My experience was unforgettable, I believe yours will be just as special and magical.

- Be persistent in what you want, I wanted this and it came true. The same thing can happen to you, just don't give up.

- Thank you for your attention!
